Miss Harriet R. Congdon, until recently connected with the Mid-Pacific Institute in Honolulu, but who has recently been appointed dean of women in Wilson College, Pennsylvania, will give an address at the kindergarten room of the Alexander House Settlement this evening, on the subject of the trend of the American drama. Mrs. Helen Mar Linton, who has recently become a resident of Wailuku, will read from the much-discussed play "Kindling". Mrs. Linton made a notable success in Honolulu recently in staging the Cherry Blossom. The program is under the auspices of the Maui Library Association, and will begin at 8:15 o'clock. No admission is to be charged.

Pertinent Paragraphs

The board of supervisors is making an inspection of the Kula sanitarium today. It expects to finish its work on the new budget this evening or tomorrow.

An extra dividend of 5 percent, in addition to the regular 1 percent dividend was paid on Monday to shareholders of the Wailuku Sugar Company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. West gave a pretty and delightful party last Saturday in honor of Alma Ross (Baby Alma) who was celebrating her 7th birthday. About 25 little people spent a joyous afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Anna Whisler to T. Desmond Collins will occur tomorrow, at noon, at the Wailuku Union Church. The young couple will make their home in Paia, Hawaii where Mr. Collins is now located.

The quarterly meeting of the Maui Chamber of commerce has been called for next Thursday afternoon, July 20, at 3 o'clock at which time, subjects of needed legislation will be discussed, as well as subjects to be brought before the 5th civic convention in Hilo, in September.

Frank Koushli convicted in the Wailuku district court of petty larceny on two counts, was on Wednesday sentenced to jail for one year in each case. The man was accused of taking a cheap watch and some bric-a-brac from some laborers' homes in Puunene.

After a short illness from pneumonia and a complication of troubles, Anna, the little 7 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. L. Ludin, of Paia, died at the Paia Hospital, last Friday evening. The funeral took place at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning.

The Wailuku fire department was called to Waikapu about 9 o'clock last Friday morning by a fire which destroyed a small frame house owned by a Hawaiian named Haleole, who is now a resident of Honolulu. The tenant living in the place was burning leaves in the yard, and the flames were communicated to the house. The building was formerly occupied by the late Harry Eldridge.

By an order from the territorial treasurer's office, Deputy Sheriff Geo. H. Cummings was this week relieved of his little side job of marriage license agent for Wailuku district, and the same turned over to W. E. Cockett, deputy tax assessor. It has been the policy of the treasury department for the past several years, to have marriage licenses issued only through the deputy tax assessors, and Cummings' resignation to accept the job in the sheriff's department was warrant enough for the transfer.

cently connected with the Mid-Pacific Institute in Honolulu, but who has recently been appointed dean of women in Wilson College, Pennsylvania, will give an address at the kindergarten room of the Alexander House Settlement this evening, on the subject of the trend of the American drama. Mrs. Helen Mar Linton, who has recently become a resident of Wailuku, will read from the much-discussed play "Kindling". No More Charges At Alexander House

Except In Few Instances Fees For Privileges Have Been Abolished—Board of Directors Elected

At a meeting of the newly formed Alexander House Settlement Association held at the Baldwin National Bank on July 10th, the new Charter and by-laws were accepted and signed and forwarded to the Treasurer of the Territory for his approval, and the signature of the Governor. These by-laws call for a Board of Trustees consisting of not less than seven and not more than eleven members. They will be elected by the Settlement Association for varying terms as set forth in the by-laws. The present board consists of the following: Dr. W. D. Baldwin, H. B. Penhallow, Dr. William Osmer, William Seaby, Mrs. H. B. Penhallow, Mrs. Harold Rice, Miss Charlotte L. Turner, Rowland B. Dodge, and Dan T. Carey. At the first meeting of the Association Dr. Baldwin was elected President, Mr. Penhallow, Vice-president, Mr. Dodge, Secretary, D. C. Lindsay, Auditor, and the Baldwin National Bank, Treasurer. The Finance Committee consists of Messrs. Penhallow, Dodge, and Seaby.

Two very significant changes in the policy of the Alexander House Settlement have been, first, making it an independent institution. Another change in policy is that of making the Gymnasium and other departments of the Settlement, excepting special class instruction in the Night School, free. Prior to this, children were required to pay dues amounting to 6 dollars a year and men, 10 dollars a year, while women paid 5 dollars. The dues for children were changed last September to $1.50 a year and later this fee was dispensed with, making the Gymnasium free for them. At a meeting of the Trustees yesterday it was decided to do away with all dues, for men, women, and children, making the entire institution free. This includes the Gymnasium, swimming pool, the new tennis courts which will be constructed as soon as possible, the playground, beach house and all other departments. A small fee for lockers and towels will be the only charge.

The Alexander House Settlement. The Trustees of the Settlement, which will be the governing body, will be elected by the Alexander House Settlement Association. Membership in this Association will be island-wide. There are three types of members: life members, those paying $500 or more; active members, those paying $10 a year, or more; associate members, those paying $5 a year. Membership in this Association is determined by election of the trustees. Life and active members may vote for the Trustees.

It is expected that through this change in the policy, throwing the Settlement open to all who wish to come, and providing an Association, island-wide in its scope, for those who are interested in the welfare of the institution that it will make for a more effective work not only in Wailuku, but elsewhere on Maui.
